In March 1910 the District Magistrate of Bangalore proposed that, as in the Civil and Military Station, the Chairman for the time being of the Bench of Honorary Magistrates in the Bangalore City may be given a conveyance allowance of Rs.30 per mensem. He was then asked to renew his recommendation after the Bench had worked for a year. Similarly in July 1910 the District Magistrate of Mysore recommended that a conveyance allowance may be given to each of the members of the Bench for the Mysore City sitting at a time. He was also requested to renew the recommendation after the Bench had worked for a year.

Sir,

Adverting to your letter No.J.3416/Cts.5-09 dated 6th May 1910, re the submission of recommendation for granting an allowance of Rs.30/- per month to the Chairman of the Bench Magistrate's Court after a year's work of the Bench is over, I have the honor to state as follows:-

Hag P

/. The Bench Magistrate's Court commenced its sittings on 8th November 1909 with ~~with~~ Mr.Varadarajiengar as its Chairman. Since the formation of the Court, there were 6 different Benches up to the end of October 1910. A statement showing the different Benches with the names of the special Magistrates who constituted the particular Bench is enclosed for perusal.

2. Of the 10 Honorary Magistrates appointed in Government Proceedings No.J.973-85/Cts.5-09-5 dated 27th September 1909, Messrs Varadarajiengar and H.Ramiah resigned after serving as Chairmen for a session and Mr.P.Singlachar resigned without serving even once at least. Messrs C.Rama Rao, C.V. Narayan Rao and M.S.Puttanna were appointed to fill up the existing vacancies in Government Order No.J.174/Cts.5-09-28 dated 20th July 1910. Mr.C.Rama Rao also sent in his resignation after serving on the Bench for a Session. A separate recommendation will be submitted to fill up the vacancy.

3. Since the Court was started, 466 cases have been brought on its file. Of these, 215 cases relate to offences offences under the Indian penal Code and the remaining 251 cases were under the Municipal Regulation. Of the total number of cases, 427 cases have been disposed of and 39 cases were pending disposal at the end of October 1910. The enclosed statement(b) gives full details regarding the nature of offences, the number of persons convicted or discharged or acquitted.

4. The Bench Court during the year ending with October 1910 has done good work and the Magistrates have shown considerable interest in the work. Owing to the resignation tendered by ~~tendered by~~ Messrs H.Ramiah, Singlachar and Varadarajiengar, Mr.Bele Srinivasa Rao had to continue for 5 months as there were no special Magistrates who had previous judicial experience to be appointed as Chairman.

5. The Bench Court, which was sanctioned as only an experimental measure in Government Proceedings No.J.3203-14/Cts.202-07-4 dated 19th April 1909, deserves to be made permanent. The Court is now located in a spacious room in the District Office buildings and the Court room is convenient enough for all practical purposes, only a few conveniences have to be provided to the Honorary Magistrates as regards retiring room etc. and steps will be taken early to meet their wants as funds permit. But above all, it is quite necessary, in view to make the scheme a success, to sanction a carriage allowance of Rs.30/- a month to the Bench for the time being, as otherwise, it is not possible to expect always non-official gentlemen to walk all the way from their houses to the Court and work there gratuitously and further experienced retired Officers cannot be induced to accept the Chairman's duties without being given any conveniences.

6. For the above reasons, I would request the favour of your moving the Government to kindly sanction the conveyance allowance of Rs.30/- per mensem to the Chairman of the Bench.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

Deputy Commissioner &
District Magistrate.

GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

SIR,

Adverting to correspondence ending with your letter No. J 581 Cls 14-10-2 dated 23rd August 1910, I have the honour to forward herewith an extract from the Report upon the administration of Criminal Justice in the Mysore district during 1909-1910 and other statistics relating to the Bench Court at Mysore and to state as follows:-

The creation of this Court is evidently of great help to the parties, who seem to have been satisfied not only with the result of Criminal cases tried by this Court, but also with the promptitude with which the cases have been concluded. Out of 33 cases of convictions all appealable only 5 cases have been appealed against and of them only 1 ended in reversal.

The City Magistrate also feels rather relieved of the bulk of so many cases which used to go to swell his own file.

This Court has therefore been turning out very useful work and the question of granting the conveyance allowance already recommended by me in No. 19 dated 9.7.1910 may kindly Flag 'I' be considered by Government now and early orders ~~may~~ passed in view to a provision therefor being made in the budget submitted for the ensuing year.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

District Magistrate,

Mypore District.

Extract from the report of the administration of Criminal Justice in the Mysore District during the year 1909-10.

The cases of detention (of witnesses for 4 days) have been much greater than in the previous year viz 83 against 25 This phenomenon is owing to so many as 67 witnesses having been detained for 4 days together in the Court of the 4th Bench Magistrates.

But for this circumstance the result indicated would not have been so abnormal. This was probably owing to the arrangement of the court holding its sittings on alternate days. Some cases may have been also tried successively during the several sittings which necessitated the detention but the circumstance is nevertheless striking and will be brought to the notice of the Magistrates Concerned.

Before the report is concluded it is not out of place to offer some remarks about the working of the Bench Court newly constituted for the city of Mysore during the year.

It is composed of 10 Magistrates some of whom are retired Assistant Commissioners. Three Magistrates sit together as a Bench for the trial of cases and hold their court on every alternate days. One of them is selected as Chairman who records evidence and Judgment on their behalf. The function of Chairman has been exercised alternately by the a retired Assistant Commissioners Messrs B and C. Krishna Rows.

They have tried petty offences under the Indian Penal Code and the Municipal Regulation arising within the City of Mysore. The trial of cases in this court is characterized by promptitude and reflects much credit upon the Magistrates Concerned. The Summary powers with which they are invested are, as already referred to, an advantage in their favour.

In view to give some relief to the present magistrates by reducing the period of their sitting from 3 to 2 months at a time it has been proposed to add a few more members to the existing number. The matter is under Consideration of the Government.
